ANSWER: The sheriff cares about you and your safety!

We're here to help
you and your family!

The sheriff has help to perform his/her duties. They are called deputy sheriffs.

Find your way through the maze!

The sheriff's department is also in charge of the county jail. This is where they lock up people who have broken the law. These are called prisoners and they are locked in cells.

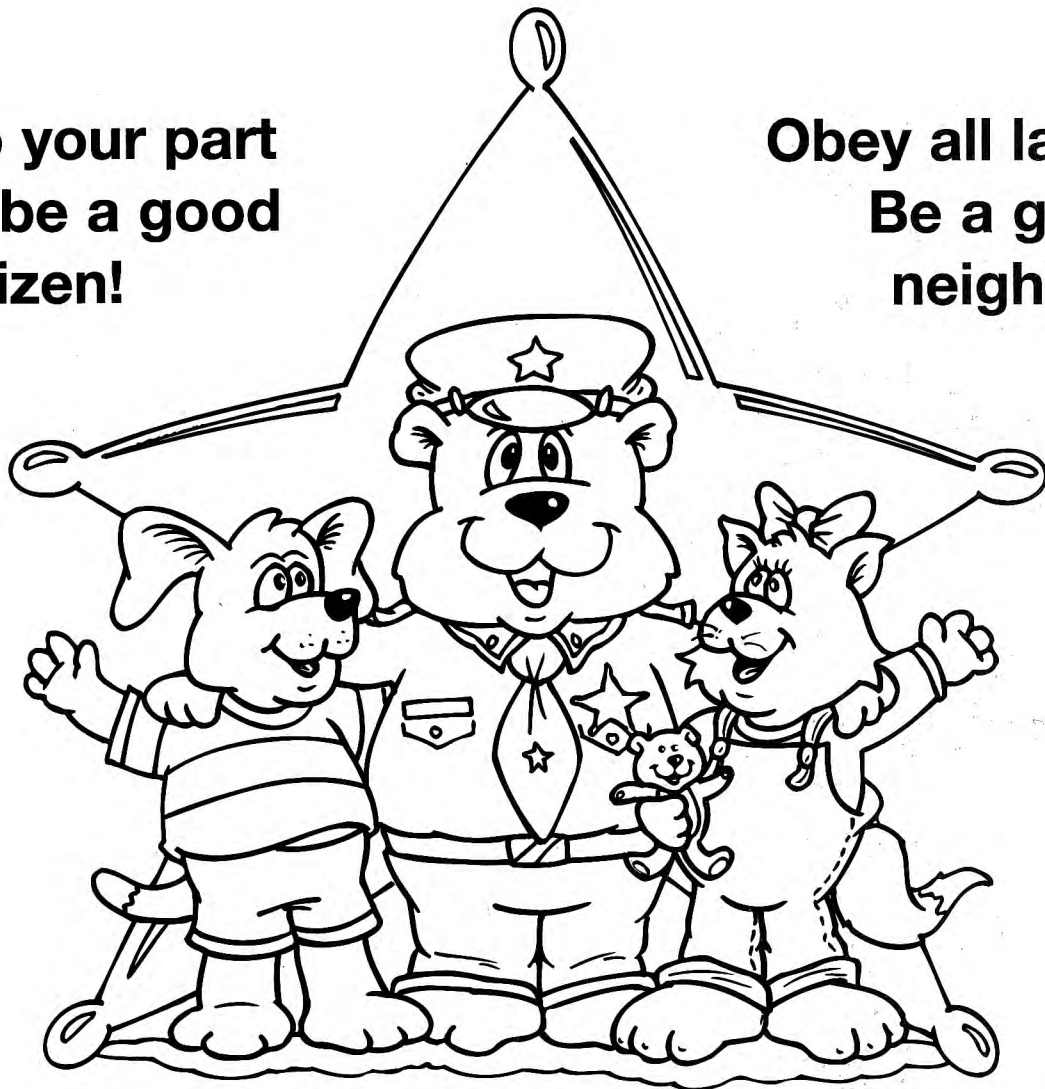

Please be careful!

The deputies patrol the county roads. They can give speeding tickets or warn people to drive safely. They also deliver official documents to people at their homes.

Do your part to be a good citizen!

Obey all laws!
Be a good neighbor!

How can we help?

The sheriff's department
must handle
many jobs
and is very busy!

A sheriff and
deputies answer
telephones
and complete
paperwork.
When they do an investigation they also do lab work and fingerprinting. They will also speak to your neighborhood about how everyone can help by forming
community watch
programs.

Find the line that will take you to the city limits!

Thank you for keeping us safe!

The sheriff will be a friend to you and your family.
